

FREE SEMINAR

"Social networking and Preparing for college: The Good, the Bad and The Ugly" for middle school and high school students

How much is too much personal information on Facebook? Is reputation management something everyone should think about? What about cyberbullying – is it really that bad? How can parents keep up with the digital culture and prepare their children?

Guest Speaker: Beth Jackson, NCAC Community Program Manager

Saturday, December 17, 2011

1:00pm

Huntsville Hospital Dowdle Center

109 Governors Drive, Rm 119, Huntsville, AL

Please RSVP at <http://www.ashakiran.com/asha/rsvp.html>

Thank you HUNTSVILLE HOSPITAL

Education	Empathy	Empowerment
Speaker Beth Jackson: Beth Jackson has worked with at-risk children for over 19 years. She grew up in Riverside, California and attended the University of California. After moving to Alabama, she worked as the Education Director and the Director of Operations for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Huntsville for almost six years	If someone you know is suffering in silence please call our trained volunteers at Ashaline (Hopeline) (256) 509-1882 Endorsed by aAPI Huntsville India Association Gujarati Samaj of TN Valley Bengali Association of Huntsville Islamic Center of TN Valley Hindu Cultural Center of North AL Orissa Association of Southern Chapter	A Non-profit Organization to Empower the South Asian Community Send Inquiries to: P.O. Box 12311 Huntsville, AL 35815 Phone: (256) 509-1882 Email: asha117@gmail.com Web: www.ashakiran.com