Who We Are

AshaKiran aspires to be "A Ray of Hope" in the community by providing support services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking.

We specialize in addressing the unique needs of foreign-born and underserved victims of crimes. We strive to promote cultural awareness and bridge the gap between service providers and those we serve.

We offer culturally appropriate sensitive services and language access in over 40 languages to our clients and partner organizations.

"'Thank You' is just too small to say. I owe my life to AshaKiran."

Our Mission

To address crises such as domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking in the foreign-born and underserved communities, by offering culturally sensitive services and providing education to enhance understanding of cultural barriers.

Language Services available in over 40 languages

Support is available to our clients and partner organizations serving victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking at no cost.

Community Awareness Program

Professional development presentations promoting cultural awareness, cultural humility, best practices for working with the foreign-born and underserved community, implicit bias, and more!
